

Abhilasha Gulhane

Visual artist

Bay Area, California · abhilashagulhane111@gmail.com · +1 650 602 8740 · @abhilasha.sfart

Paintings of mind, attention, and systems — in a geometric line language drawn from Warli wall art.

EDUCATION

---

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2009 | Intermediate Drawing Grade Examination, Grade AGovernment Drawing Grade Examination, Directorate of Arts, Government of Maharashtra. Annual government-certified art test: still life, memory drawing, design, geometry and lettering.         |
| 2007 | Elementary Drawing Grade Examination, Grade AGovernment Drawing Grade Examination, Directorate of Arts, Government of Maharashtra. Annual government-certified art test: object drawing, memory drawing, design, plane geometry and lettering. |
| 2020 | M.S., University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2018 | B.Tech., Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

SELECTED WORK

---

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2026 | Human Mind and Technology EcosystemAcrylic on canvas. Ten works in three formats: monument canvases (24 × 36 in); horizon triptych (12 × 36 in per panel, three panels); intimate studies (18 × 24 in). |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

CHARITY AUCTIONS

---

|      |                                                                                    |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2024 | BlackRock San Francisco Giving Days, silent auctionFive paintings sold. |
| 2023 | BlackRock San Francisco Giving Days, silent auctionPaintings sold.      |

Inventory (title, year, medium, size, availability) on request. Prices not listed on the public site.